

(a) route support present

ADMITTED

the indicator moves, and the same counterfactual moves a lever that has an edge into it

(b) route support absent

BLOCKED

the only lever the guideline recognises as a route into this indicator is not the one that moved

The same lever moves in both. Admissibility depends on which indicator it is paired with, which is why a constraint table indexed by feature cannot express the condition.